

Terms of Agreement

*50% deposit is due upon acceptance of this proposal and payment in full is required on the final day of installation or delivery. Buyer understands that there may be dye-lot variances from samples. All areas must be clear of obstacles at the time of installation unless otherwise specified in proposal. Seller is not responsible for customer's measurements. Seller will figure industry average 10% overage (or waste factor) on all materials required for jobs. Stock material is returnable in full cartons in good selling condition with in 30 days of sales invoice. Special order returns are accepted on materials of 5 full cartons or more in good selling condition and within 30 days of the sales invoice. When special order returns are accepted there will be a manufacturer/distributor restocking charge of 25% plus freight. Seller will make a reasonable effort to obtain all materials in a timely manor, but cannot be held responsible for manufacturer shipping delays. Seller cannot be held responsible for existing substrate conditions (excessive moisture content, high Ph levels, uneven slab, existing floor differences, etc).

Purchaser agrees to pay late fee of 2% per month of unpaid balance. In the event that buyer/builder defaults under these terms and the sum(s) due are collected by or through an attorney or collection agency, the buyer/builder agrees to pay reasonable attorney and or collection fees.
